

RAFTING GEAR LIST

It is important to understand that you are responsible for certain things to insure a successful trip. The two most important are: a good positive attitude, and the gear list below. If you have particular items you wish to bring on the trip which are not on the list, feel free to ask us about them. For example, we'd love to have someone bring a guitar.

- Good quality rain gear (pants and jacket w/hood) MANDATORY
- Fleece jacket or equivalent MANDATORY
- Wetsuits are MANDATORY when conditions dictate (we recommend reserving these well in advance. They can be picked up in Stanley the night before the trip. Wetsuit gloves can be nice as well.)
- Polar Fleece Pants. (Recommended but optional)
River shoes: June - wet suit booties, sandals, or tennis shoes & wool socks July & Aug. - sandals or tennis shoes.
- Hiking and/or tennis shoes for camp
- Sunglasses with strap
- Hat
- Sun screen, chap stick, bug repellent, and hand lotion.
- Two bathing suits and shorts made out of quick - drying material. (for women, 2-piece bathing suits work well.)
- One pair of long pants (blue jeans).
- Long Johns or sweats
Underwear, socks, and light gloves.
- Personal hygiene supplies including one roll of toilet paper, small bar of biodegradable soap, travel pack of Wet Ones.
- Personal medications, allergy medications, reaction medication to insect stings and bites
- Towel and wash cloth
- Small pillow
- One large plastic garbage bag, three - (1) gallon ziplock bags
- 4'x8' plastic ground cloth (for sleeping out under the stars)
- Alcoholic beverages: you buy it, we'll haul it, please, no glass. We do serve wine with most dinners and margaritas on Mexican night.
- Fishing gear: see enclosed fishing gear list
- Small flashlight with extra bulb & batteries
- Camera, batteries, & film (disposable, waterproof cameras are great.)
- 20 ft. of cord for clothesline. 1 per couple or family, (optional)
- Belt with knife and/or pocket knife(optional)
- Blank check for tipping the guides
- 1 quart water bottle
- Optional –self filtering water bottle (we provide fresh water, juice, and pop throughout the day), book, pencil, paper, playing cards, compact binoculars, etc.
- * If you have particular items you wish to bring on the trip, which are not on the list, feel free to ask us about them. For example, we'd love to have someone bring their guitar.